

World History Resources

Country Reports.Org -- Countries profiled from around the world. The Internet's best source of data on over 260 countries!

Culture Quest features two animals who want to find out how the rest of the world lives. Each stop along the way explains the country's folktales, visits museums, and shares local recipes.

CIA World Factbook includes information on every country in the world.

Collapse: Why do Civilizations Fall? Mesopotamia, Teotihuacán, Chaco Canyon - they were once flourishing, vibrant communities that have all but disappeared from Earth. Explore theories on what caused these cities to collapse and learn how scientists find and assemble clues of the past.

Mark Millmore's Ancient Egyptian Page describes pyramids, temples, kings and queens, and hieroglyphics with excellent graphics.

Odyssey Online -- exploration of ancient Near Eastern, Egyptian, Greek, and Roman cultures.

The Ancient Olympics gives a tour of Ancient Olympia and describes some of the ancient games and athlete requirements to participate.

Deep in the Bush, Where People Rarely Ever Go brings African culture alive in the classroom with folk tales and accompanying activities. Included in this site is an extensive teacher lesson page, African recipes, links to other African resources, and ideas for your students to create and produce their own plays.